GENERAL PRESENTATION

A fertile place for audiovisual creation and innovations (cinema, writing, media, video games, Virtual Reality, 3D, digital, etc.). Production studios for audiovisual professionals at Campus Bastide Rouge in Cannes.

La Bastide Rouge is a new center of excellence dedicated to the development of the creative economy and image professions in Cannes, the international capital of cinema and the leading French city (outside Paris) in terms of trade shows and festivals.

This site offers top-of-the-range equipment for the audiovisual creation chain, from production to broadcasting, university training and collaborative spaces for professionals. It welcomes in an exceptional territory a real cultural creative breeding ground where talents and audiovisual professionals, entrepreneurs, start-ups, students and academics come together.

Ideally located at the entrance of Cannes, the Bastide Rouge studios are in the immediate vicinity of the sea and major sports facilities,
