LOCATION HISTORY

Originally it was a pulp factory, then a lighter stone factory, a ceramics warehouse, an electrical factory and a performing arts factory. The old factory was founded in 1902 and was gradually transformed. The three turbines gave way to the workshop and the lighted workroom. The generators have become a reception area, tables and a café. The hangar: a theatre. The lock keeper's house: accommodation for the artists. Almost 800 m2 rehabilitated. A formidable factory for theatrical use has been created.

CONSTRUCTION PERIOD

1901-1910
